BOLTON WANDERERS v WOLVERHAMPTON WANDERERS

DOUGIE FREEDMAN

Good afternoon and welcome back to the Reebok Stadium for this afternoon's game against Wolves. I'd like to extend that welcome to Dean Saunders, his staff, players and supporters, as well as our match sponsors Carling.

Our win over Huddersfield on Tuesday night was pleasing, not only in terms of the result, but also in the manner of our performance. The players showed a real determination, desire and willingness to put their bodies on the line to earn that victory. Those are the kinds of qualities you need at this stage of the season. With Huddersfield, they threw everything they had at us in the last ten minutes, but we stood up to them on and off the pitch.

There is a real intensity in the games in this league now. Teams are all fighting for something, whether it's for promotion or against relegation.

It's important at this stage of the season that both physically and mentally our players and staff are fresh. With this in mind, we made full use of the international break. In the early part of the week the lads were put through a very intense course of training. We then gave them some time off towards the end of the week.

During that time I took my family to Center Parcs for three days. It was wonderful and gave us a little bit of downtime. It makes you think about things in a different way. I've got four young kids and a wife, Sarah, so it was good to talk to them. You sometimes forget that there's another life outside of football.

The players came back from their four days off. Some had been on holiday, some had gone home - Marcos went back to Spain for example. It gave people a real break and an opportunity to take their families away and to see friends. When they came back it gave us a different dynamic to work with.

I have no doubt the international break had a positive impact on our fans too. I felt that the atmosphere against Huddersfield was once again an important factor. The support was loud and the fans now understand the way we play. We want to go about games in the right way, playing patient possession football whilst being ready to alter our plan at any given time.

As we enter this last stretch of the season we will need the backing of the fans week in week out. Both at home and away we have had a strong vocal backing. It helps, I have no doubt about that.

I will continue to make full use of the squad over the remaining games. We've recently included both Josh Vela and Sanmi Odelusi on the bench in the last few games. Both are young men who have earned their respective places in the first team squad.

I am a manager who likes working with and developing young players. We also have Robert Hall on loan from West Ham and he is another exciting young prospect. These are the kind of players I want to work with.

It has been pleasing to see how well the under-18s have done this season and I want to build on, develop and add to the young talent we have here at the club. We have brought in Cian Bolger and Jan Gregus as we continue to look towards the future. It was my policy at Crystal Palace and was successful and it will be here too.

KEVIN DAVIES

Good afternoon and welcome back to the Reebok Stadium for today's game against Wolves.

We're currently on a great run of form here, having registered six wins on the spin. It's great that we're winning games at this crucial stage of the season and that we've still got something to play for, as a lot of teams have in this league.

We've shown that as a squad, we're willing to really dig in and grind out results. That's exactly what we did against Huddersfield and have done in recent weeks here at the Reebok. At times we were under a bit of pressure, but we stood strong, defended as a unit and came out with three points.

I was pleased to see Chris Eagles get the winner. He's a top guy and puts in a lot of hard work on the training ground. I know he has been a little frustrated at being out of the side of late but he has proved that when he's on the pitch he has the ability to score important goals.

It was nice to hear the reaction of the supporters when I was warming up on the touchline on Tuesday evening. I thought that the support was once again outstanding and it really does make a difference to the lads that are out there on the pitch, especially at this stage of the season.

We were right back in training on Wednesday morning in preparation for today's game. The lads are in good spirits and there's a positive feeling around the dressing room at the moment. We continue to have competition for places all over the field and the recent loan signings have settled into the squad very well.

If we are to stand a chance of making the play-offs we all know that we will need to pick up a positive result this afternoon.

Wolves are a side that still have a lot to play for. They've picked up a few injuries of late but will still be a difficult side to play against.

We've had some pretty entertaining games against them in recent years, especially at Molineux. This afternoon's game doesn't necessarily have to be a memorable one; we just have to make sure we come out on the right side of the scoreline.

Enjoy the game and once again thank you for your support.

EAVES IS AT IT AGAIN

Wanderers striker is at it again with his first senior hat trick in Shrewsbury Town's 3-0 win over Crawley Town on Easter Monday.

Tom Eaves, on loan at the League One outfit, scored all three goals in the second half as the Shrews look to confirm their place in England's third tier for the second consecutive season.

The 21-year-old has scored 13 goals this campaign and will be looking to add to his tally further today when Town travel to play-off contenders Yeovil Town.

Meanwhile, USA international Stuart Holden made his first start for loan club Sheffield Wednesday last weekend in their crucial battle against Yorkshire rivals Barnsley, a game in which the Owls won 2-1. Holden, a spectator at Bolton's last home game against Huddersfield will be looking to be involved in Wednesday's game this afternoon at home to Blackburn Rovers.

RESIDENTS SAVE £3M THROUGH ENERGY SWITCH SCHEME

Residents across Greater Manchester are to save more than £3million as part of the UK's biggest energy switching scheme.

More than 35,000 people signed up for the GM Fair Energy scheme throughout January, and some residents are now set to make savings of nearly £900 a year.

Those who registered for the scheme were placed into a 'reverse auction' and have been offered new energy deals. Deals have also been made available for people on pre-payment meters for the first time - with one to make an annual saving of £295 - meaning some of the area's poorest people will be able to slash their bills.

The total saving to be offered to people across Greater Manchester is £3.1million with an average saving of around £122 a year.

Residents who haven't already signed up can sign up for the next energy switch auction which is taking place on 8th April. For more information or to register residents can go to www.gm-fairenergy.com or call free phone 0800 009 3363.

BECOME A PART OF BOLTON WANDERERS HISTORY IN SUPPORT OF NAT

The award winning sculptor Sean Hedges Quinn is currently creating a bronze 9ft statue of Nat Lofthouse OBE.

The pose was chosen by fans, family and Club of Nat Lofthouse walking out as Captain with ball in hand from the tunnel at Burden Park.

The image reflects that which Nat did week in week out and is suited well to his final words spoken before he died on 15th January 2011. "I've got the ball now, it's a bit worn but I have got it". It will be situated outside the Main entrance of the Reebok Stadium.

The Nat Lofthouse Memorial Fund Committee is inviting you to be part of Bolton Wanderers history by becoming either a Patron or a Friend of Nat in support of building this lasting Memorial to Nat.

The special packages of £5,000 for Patron and £1,000 for Friends of Nat include for the patron one of up to 18 limited edition 18 inch Maquette, numbered and signed by Sculptor, and for the patrons and friends one of 58 framed wall mounted freeze of Nat raising up the FA Cup in bronze (18"x14")

For further information regarding these special packages please contact Phil Mason on 01204 673668.

MEDO KAMARA

A full-page action photograph of Medo Kamara, a footballer, running on a pitch. He is wearing a red long-sleeved shirt with white accents and white shorts. The shirt has a 'Radian' sponsor logo and a 'MUSCLE' logo. He is also wearing a patch on his right sleeve that says 'POWER' and 'LIVE LIFE'. The background is blurred, showing stadium lights and a blue advertising board with the number '20'.

DREAM COME TRUE

Tough tackling midfielder Medo Kamara has warmed to the hearts of the Bolton Wanderers' faithful since his arrival in January from Partizan Belgrade. Having watched the Whites on TV when growing up, the Sierra Leone international admits it is a dream come true to play in England.

ONE-ON-ONE

What was his thinking about moving to England? Has he adapted to the cold weather in the North West? What was it like to play against Arsenal in the Champions League? And what does he do away from the field?

WE PUT YOUR QUESTIONS TO...

MEDO KAMARA

Despite having only joined the club in January, Medo Kamara is already been making a name for himself amongst the Wanderers' faithful.

Although his name translates into Serbian as 'teddy bear', there is certainly nothing soft and cuddly about the no-nonsense central midfielder.

The 25-year-old, who recently notched his first strike in Bolton colours in the game against Charlton, took time out to speak exclusively to the match day programme about how he originally become involved in the game, why he is loving the Championship and how he never scores simple goals.

How did you first get into football?

Steven Carr via Twitter

Since I was small, I've always loved it. I used to play with the other kids and my dad used to take me to the field to play, so I just played as much as I could.

Did you dream of becoming a footballer from the first time you kicked a ball?

Gary Ward via Facebook

When I was five or six, I was just a kid playing football, but when I was about ten years old I realised that this was what I wanted to do – I just wanted to play football because I loved it.

You joined Bolton in January – have you enjoyed your time here so far?

Heather Ryan via Twitter

I've had a really good time here since I joined – there are lots of very good lads here, both on and off the field. Bolton Wanderers are a big club and I'm delighted to be here.

The fans have really taken to you really well and your becoming a fans favourite, how does that feel?

Aimee Fellows via Facebook

I'm really happy about that – it is every player's wish that the fans like you at a big club like Bolton and I really appreciate it a lot.

It is a special feeling when you hear the supporters chanting your name and hopefully they will continue to do so if I can continue to put in the right performances.

Growing up, did you watch a lot of English football on TV?

Edward Smith via Facebook

Of course. All the kids at home did, it is what we did – they just wait for the weekend to watch the Premier League. I used to watch Bolton in the Premier League when they were there for many years so I am delighted to be here representing the football club.

“Hopefully there will be more goals to come from me this season.”

You've played in the Champions League against Arsenal only a couple of years ago – what was that like?

Anne Tapley via email

It was a great feeling – it was one of our dreams as a footballer to play in big competitions like the Champions League. When I was younger, I wanted nothing more than to play in games like that so it was a dream come true for me.

You've been playing internationally since you were young – do you think that has given you the experience to develop yourself as a player?

James Anderson via Facebook

For sure, that was a massive boost for me and my career. Playing on that huge stage definitely helped me to develop my strength and ability and it helped me to play with confidence.

I started playing for Sierra Leone at a young age and it helped me adapt to play in different surroundings and compete against quality international footballers.

How have you found your first four months in England?

Andy Pilkington via Twitter

It was strange at first, it is very cold! I am getting used to it though – this is the life I chose and wherever I go, it is to play football and the weather doesn't matter so I cannot complain about it.

When I was in Finland, there was a lot of snow and I liked it there, but over here it has been so bad. Hopefully the weather will start to pick up towards the end of the season.

How are you finding the Championship?

Chris Rose via Facebook

It is a very tough league to play in; I would say it is tougher than the Premier League. In the Premier League teams give you time to play, but in the Championship everybody is fighting for every ball and they don't give you a minute to breathe.

It is a great learning experience because it helps you to develop as a player both physically and mentally.

Who have you been spending time with away from training and is it hard settling into new surroundings?

Harry Trice via email

When I first joined I spent time with Steve de Ridder because we signed on the same day and we were living in the hotel together.

Steve helped me settle into life in England because he only moved over here a couple of years ago from Belgium when he joined Southampton.

I have also become good friends with Rob Lainton and David Ngog, they are both great guys and we chill out after training.

You scored your first goal against Charlton – how did that feel?

Claire Rhodes via email

It was so great for me to get the goal, when you join a club; you want to get that first one as soon as you can. At this early stage, I'm really happy about that, but I was just disappointed that we lost the game. We were on top in the match at the start, but this is football and that does happen sometimes. Hopefully there will be more to come, I scored a lot of goals like that when I was in Finland and a lot of my goals I score are from outside the penalty area.

Have you tried any new foods since you've been in England?

Robert Preston via Facebook

I have tried fish and chips when I have been with a few of the lads but I am a massive fan of Nando's, everybody seems to go there and I can see why.

The team picked up an important three points against Huddersfield Town on Tuesday – how important was that result?

Lee Robertson via Twitter

It was a great result as it means we are still in the fight at the right end of the league table. We need to continue our excellent form at home this afternoon against Wolves but we are aware it will not be an easy game.

We are confident and we will take the positives away from Tuesday night's win against Huddersfield Town into the remaining six games of the season and hopefully that will be enough to get us to where we want to be.

CHARLTON V WANDERERS

Wanderers suffered a narrow 3-2 defeat away at Charlton Athletic.

Wanderers raced into a 2-0 lead inside the opening 20 minutes. Five minutes later, Charlton halved the deficit through Johnnie Jackson.

Early in the second half, Sam Ricketts was dismissed and the Addicks capitalised with two quick fire goals.

Bolton looked for an equaliser goal but couldn't find a break through and in stoppage time Craig Davies was sent off for two bookable offences.

MANAGER'S REACTION:

“I felt we could have gone into the break with a bigger lead as we created a number of good chances.

Credit to Charlton, they came out and started the second half on the front-foot.

There's no doubt the sending off hurt us. If I had an observation, it was that we put the referee in a position where he had to make some important decisions. That obviously had an effect on the game.”

WANDERERS V HUDDERSFIELD

Chris Eagles scored the winning goal for the second time in three games at the Reebok Stadium in a 1-0 win over Huddersfield Town.

The winger hit the back of the net with a cool finish in the 59th minute after tenacious play from Marvin Sordell who won the ball back deep inside the Huddersfield half.

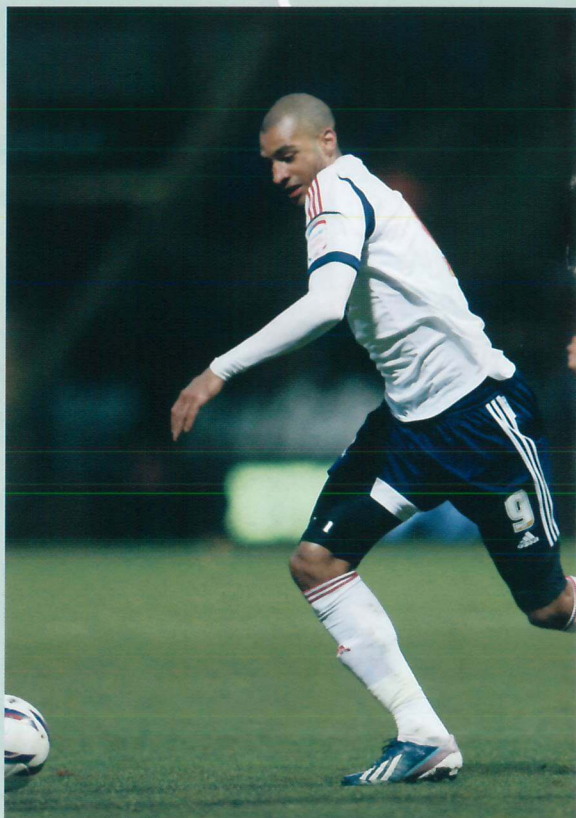

The win sees Bolton back up to eighth in the npower Championship and Dougie Freedman's side have now won their last six games at home in the league and unbeaten in 2013.

MANAGER'S REACTION:

“ We had to tweak our game-plan, as we expected them to sit back in midfield. They didn't do that and we had to play more down the wings. That gave us much more success in the second half.

“Along with that, we increased the tempo, were quicker to the ball, created chances and scored a well-worked goal.

“We need to continue to play with the same commitment we showed against Huddersfield for the rest of the season. If we do that we're always going to be in with a chance of winning games. ”

BOLTON WANDERERS TOP TENS

THE ONE AND ONLY WANDERER

Since the mid-nineties, Bolton and Wolves fixtures have held an extra bit of significance largely in part due to both teams battling it out at the top of the Championship in the run towards promotion or looking for three points to establish themselves in the Premier League.

Both sides claim to be 'The One and Only Wanderers' and in this issue we take a look at ten players who have worn the white of Bolton and the gold of Wolves.

WORDS: MARK HEYS

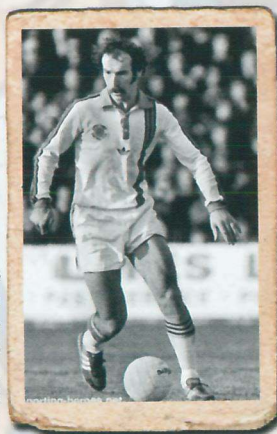

◀ Mark Davies

Wolverhampton-born and a product of the Molineux youth system, Sparky was handed his debut for Wolves under Glen Hoddle in 2005 and was described as the best Wolves youth team graduate since Robbie Keane. Davies, who spent a brief spell on at Leicester City, is currently injured and will miss today's game.

▶ Bob Hatton

Beginning at Wolves in 1964 under the management of the Stan Cullis, Hatton struggled to find a regular starting berth due to the form of Peter Knowles and was sold to Bolton in 1967. Scoring twice in 24 games at Burnden Park it wasn't until moving to Carlisle United in 1971 that he started to find the net with regularity and his career took off.

◀ Terry Wharton

The Bolton-born winger and boyhood Whites' supporter joined Wolves whilst at school and made his debut for the Midlands club aged 17, scoring on his debut in a win over Ipswich Town in November 1961. Spending over a decade at Molineux, Wharton moved to Burnden Park in 1968.

▶ Nathan Blake

A promotion winner with both of today's teams, Blake helped Bolton secure the First Division title in 1997 and Wolves win the play-offs in 2003. The powerful forward scored goals on a regular basis for the two clubs and remains in high regard with both set of supporters.

◀ Craig Davies

Current Bolton frontman Davies joined the club from Barnsley in the January transfer window, scoring his first goal against neighbours Burnley the following month. The 27-year-old enjoyed a brief loan spell at Wolves earlier in 2006 but made the majority of his appearances for the Midlands outfit from the bench.

Keith Andrews ▶

Another current Bolton player, Irish Player of the Year Andrews began his career at Wolves in 1999 under former Whites assistant boss Chris Evans. Spending time on loan away from the club during his early days, it wasn't until his final season at the club in 2004/05 season the midfielder made his breakthrough at Molineux.

◀ Alan Boswell

Born in the West Midlands and a Wolves supporter in his youth, the goalkeeper made only ten appearances for his hometown club due to the form of fellow local lad Phil Parkes. Moving to Bolton in 1969 as a direct replacement for the retiring Eddie Hopkinson, he was the regular custodian at Burnden Park for two years but could not prevent the Trotters' relegation to the Third Division in 1971.

Mixu Paatelainen ▶

Achieving promotion with Bolton in 1995 and 1997, the towering Finnish striker spent only one season at today's opponents Wolves during the 1997/98 campaign. In and out of the side at Molineux, the presence of the longer serving Steve Bull and Don Goodman proved to be the preferred strike partnership for Mark McGhee.

◀ Hugh Curran

A leading scorer for both Wanderers, the former Scottish international twice led the Molineux goalscoring stakes and helped the club to the UEFA Cup final in 1972. One of Jimmy Armfield's last signings as Bolton boss in 1974, Curran finished his first season at Burnden with 11 goals, one more than strike partner John Byrom.

Mick Bennett ▶

Another Bolton-born player and an apprentice with his hometown club, the full back spent three years with the Trotters but sadly suffered relegation on two occasions in 1980 and 1983. Joining First Division Wolves in 1983 under Graham Hawkins, he deputised for the long serving Geoff Palmer.

Name: Tony Dunne
Date of birth: July 24, 1941
Place of birth: Dublin, Ireland
Position: Left-back
Time at BWFC: 1973-1979
BWFC appearances: 170
BWFC goals: 0
BWFC magic moment: Leading Wanderers to the Second Division title in the 1997/78 season.

THEN:

Tony began his footballing career in his native Ireland, appearing for Shelbourne FC as a schoolboy in 1958.

After helping his side to the FAI Youth Cup in 1959, he repeated the feat at senior team level in the following season, which proved to be his last.

Dunne's steady performances attracted the admiring glances of Manchester United, who snapped him up for a sum of £5,000.

The full-back enjoyed a successful 13-year spell with the Red Devils, attaining the FA Cup, two Premier Division titles and the European Cup in the process.

During his lengthy stint in Manchester, Dunne accumulated an impressive 530 games, placing him seventh in the club's list of players to make the most appearances for the side.

Dunne then joined the Whites in 1973 and was able to continue his successful streak as he helped Wanderers to the Second Division in his penultimate campaign with the club.

The Irishman ended his playing time with a very short spell in the USA with Detroit Express, spending less than a season before returning to Bolton in an assistant manager role.

In 1982, Dunne took the unusual step of moving to Norway, as he took charge of Steinkjer F.K, replacing former Manchester United teammate Bill Foulkes.

His spell with the Norwegian side lasted only a year before he called time on his involvement in football.

NOW:

The 71-year-old currently runs a driving range in Altrincham.

Fact: Dunne represented the Republic of Ireland on 33 occasions, captaining the side in four of those appearances.

MATCH DAY SPECIAL

The Marvin Sordell Foundation will host their first fundraising dinner in a fight against human trafficking next week.

The dinner, which will raise funds for The Sophie Hayes Foundation and Sport For Freedom, will take place at The Mayfair Hotel in London on Tuesday 9th April, 7.30pm.

England U21 international Sordell launched his charity after reading the novel Trafficked by Sophie Hayes, which tells the true story about a young British girl who goes through the trauma of human trafficking.

Inspired to make a difference, Sordell launched his own foundation with the aim to help raise awareness of human trafficking and support survivors get their lives back on track.

"Trafficked wasn't an easy read and as sad as Sophie's story is, it's motivating to see how she's been able to gradually turn her life around," said the Bolton striker.

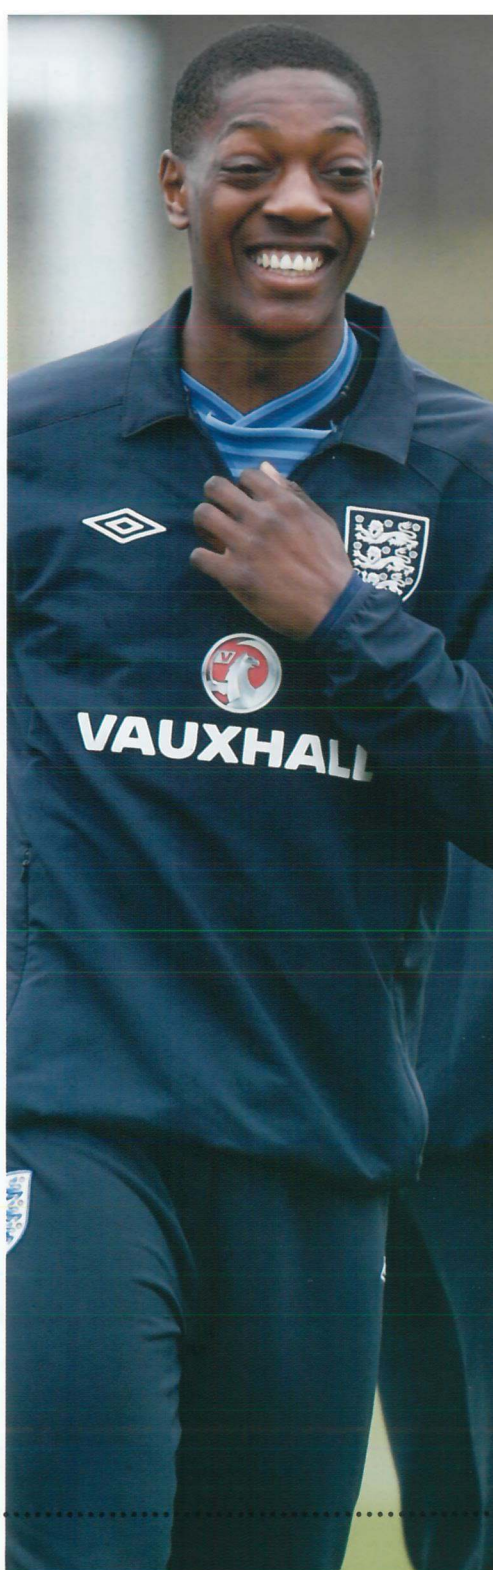

"I think the saddest thing is, is that she could be anyone – my mother, my sister, my best friend.

"There are many different forms of trafficking and few people realise just how much modern day slavery takes place in the UK.

"With help from those around me, I set up the Marvin Sordell Foundation at the start of the year to support a handful of initiatives, which includes Sophie Hayes; I am Sophie initiative and Sport for Freedom – both working to get people to engage with key issues surrounding human trafficking."

For more information about the Marvin Sordell Foundation and next month's event, please visit: <http://www.marvinsordell.co.uk/foundation.html>

Performances on the night include Ooberfuse as well as the cast of West End musical Les Misérables. Plus a musical headline act is to be announced.

Chelsea 2 - 3 Wanderers

A Tom Walker brace helped Bolton's youngsters secure an impressive three points at Chelsea

Wanderers' under-18s came from a goal down to secure an impressive away victory at Chelsea late last month.

Despite dominating the opening 20 minutes of the contest, David Lee and Tony Kelly's side fell behind via a deflected effort.

Though the Baby Whites continued to press forward and were duly rewarded for their efforts before the break. Tom Youngs jinked his way into the Chelsea penalty area before feeding Elliot Newby, who was then illegally hauled down.

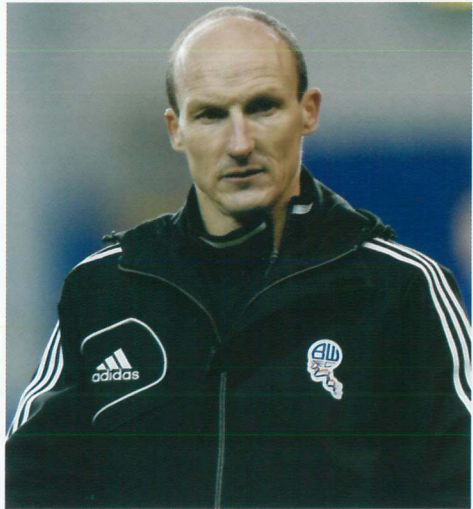

Tom Walker made no mistake from 12 yards to level the scores.

After the interval Bolton continued on the front foot and took the lead when Niall Maher finished with aplomb from 20 yards after latching onto Saul Hamer's feed.

Chelsea responded and after spell of pressure equalised on 70 minutes, but Wanderers netted a winner late on when Youngs combined with Walker who converted from an acute angle.

"To have superb attitudes and a desire to work hard is a must at any level of football," academy head coach Lee said. "The players had this in abundance, working hard off the ball to close the opponents down.

"The pleasing points from a development point is that with seven first year scholars and four second years, were all able to compete with elite Premier League youngsters."

LETTER TO FOUNDER CLUBS

2nd March,

Every year it is becoming more and more difficult for football clubs of any standing to meet their friendly engagements and even arrange friendly matches. The consequence is that at the last moment, through cup-tie interference, clubs are compelled to take on teams who will not attract the public.

I beg to tender the following suggestion as a means of getting over the difficulty: that ten or twelve of the most prominent clubs in England combine to arrange home-and-away fixtures each season, the said fixtures to be arranged at a friendly conference about the same time as the International Conference

This combination might be known as the Association Football Union, and could be managed by representative from each club. Of course, this is in no way to interfere with the National Association; even the suggested matches might be played under cup-tie rules. However, this is a detail.

My object in writing to you at present is merely to draw your attention to the subject, and to suggest a friendly conference to discuss the matter more fully. I would take it as a favour if you would kindly think the matter over, and make whatever suggestions you deem necessary. I am only writing to the following – Blackburn Rovers, Bolton Wanderers, Preston North End, West Bromwich Albion, and Aston Villa, and would like to hear what other clubs you would suggest.

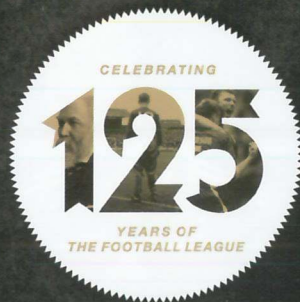

I am, yours very truly,

William McGregor
(Aston Villa F.C.)

STOKE CITY WANDERERS

A brace from Zach Clough and a Cian Bolger header ensured that the Whites' under-21s ran out 3-2 winners against Stoke City at the Weaver Stadium under the watching eye of manager Dougie Freedman.

It was clear to see that the Whites were up for the fight in the early stages, with Clough and Chris Lester proving themselves to be a nuisance in and around the hosts' penalty area.

The first notable chance of the game though was to come in the seventh minute after Jack Sampson the ball off for an unmarked Odelusi on the left, but the winger could only side-foot his shot at Daniel Bachmann in the Stoke goal.

After a ferocious start to proceedings, the game appeared to slow down in tempo slightly as the half wore on, with both sides failing to really test either goalkeeper.

With it looking as though the clash would enter the half time break goalless however, Wanderers finally got the goal their dominance deserved through Clough in the 44th minute.

Lester powered down the right flank before forcing his way into the penalty area and playing the ball back for the forward who fired home into the roof of the net from close range.

The Whites started the second period as they ended the first, with Clough putting the Stoke defence under pressure early on.

Despite their dominance however, Wanderers were hit with a sucker punch in the 51st minute as Marsden converted Stoke's first real chance in the game from close range.

Bolton certainly weren't letting the goal deter them, and their perseverance paid off just short of the hour mark as Cian Bolger header home Oscar Threlkeld's lofty free-kick from the half way line.

With Bolton well and truly having a foothold in the game, they finally scored a much deserved third through Clough in the 74th minute, with the striker chasing the ball to the byline before squeezing past his man and poking home past Bachmann from close range.

Despite Jaden Hall reducing the deficit from six yards out deep into stoppage time however, Wanderers ran out worthy winners.

Stoke City: Bachmann, Glasgow, Campbell, Dawson, Heneghan, Keane, Hall, Richardson, Barrington, Marsden, Thomas. (Subs not used: Kurasik, Cook, Sanders, Ricketts-Hopkinson, Rigg)

Wanderers: Lainton, Threlkeld, Kellett, McQuade, Bolger, Vela (Maher, 65), Lester, Blakeman (Hampson, 72), Sampson, Clough, Odelusi (McKee, 72). (Subs not used: Hampson, Sievers, Youngs)

UNDER-21S SQUAD

DEFENDER WANTS TO FINISH THE SEASON STRONG

WORDS: EMMA NORRIS

Despite having suffered the disappointment of rejection right at the start of his career, Wanderers' scholar Liam Gibson firmly believes that his initial setback has ultimately helped him to become the player he is today.

Having been told by his local side Roach Dynamos aged nine that he wasn't up to par, the Bury-born defender took their criticism as inspiration in a bid to make his childhood dream become a reality.

"After being turned down by them, I spent a year training with other clubs," said the youngster. "I then joined a team called Seedfield before going back to my old side on trial and they signed me, so I stayed there for two years before I was picked up by Bury."

With his stuttering start well and truly behind him, there was no stopping Gibson as he spent just a few weeks with the Shakers before making the move to Ewood Park where he developed a reputation as a reliable full back capable of playing on both flanks.

Sadly it wasn't to be at Blackburn and he departed at the age of 14, but Rovers' loss was to be Wanderers gain as he joined the club's youth set-up.

Despite also attracting interest from Manchester City, the 17-year-old admitted that the decision as to who he would sign for was never in doubt.

"I did have the chance to go to City, but I was already on trial with Bolton and I was enjoying it too much to go anywhere else," he said. "I do owe a lot to Nicky Spooner though – he played a big part in getting me here and he's been a massive influence on me.

"When I was about 15, I had a spell where I struggled and he helped to get me back on track – I used to be quite aggressive on the pitch, so he helped me to channel that and mould me into the player I am now."

Once settled within the academy, Gibson was rewarded with his scholarship at the age of 16 and hasn't looked back since.

An instrumental member of the club's Under 18s side, the youngster confessed that he is having the time of his life as the Baby Whites continue to pick up a number of impressive results – namely the 8-4 victory over Tottenham Hotspur in the FA Youth Cup.

"That game is definitely the highlight of my career so far. I just remember those massive bright lights in my face and the crowd slating me through the game.

"Every time I went for a throw in, they gave me stick but you've got to ride it – these were fully grown men chanting at you, but it's a good experience and it prepares you for what to expect in the future.

"It was really disappointing to go out against Nottingham Forest in the next round because we should have beaten them, but we feel like we have a good chance next year.

OPPOSITION SUMMARY

Wolves have experienced a difficult return to life in the npower Championship and are targeting survival with six games remaining.

Norwegian manager Stale Solbakken took over the reins ahead of the current campaign, but the Molineux outfit were precariously close to the Championship's relegation zone and Dean Saunders was drafted in from League One outfit Doncaster Rovers.

The former Welsh international struggled at the beginning of his tenure and didn't claim a win in his first nine matches.

In recent weeks Wolves' form has improved with wins over FA Cup semi-finalists Millwall and relegation rivals Bristol City.

Wolves head into today's contest on the back of a 3-2 win away at neighbours Birmingham City on Easter Monday.

VISITING VIEW

Tim Nash, Wolves' writer for the Express & Star newspaper, has been hugely disappointed with the club's season so far but he believes that certain players are starting to find some form.

He said: "It's been an absolutely awful season. Most people – certainly the players – expected a challenge for promotion, not a fight against relegation. But the bold appointment of Stale Solbakken didn't work out and his replacement Dean Saunders has struggled to turn the tide.

"He [Saunders] has certainly brought plenty of energy to the job. On the pitch, the players have reverted to a slightly more direct style of play reminiscent of the Mick McCarthy era, more in keeping with what they understand. But his tinkering with the team as he tries to find a winning formula and some of his over-enthusiastic post-match critiques of performances have irritated fans.

"Sylvan Ebanks-Blake has looked livelier of late and is always capable of scoring. But they suffered a blow when potential match winner Bakary Sako got injured against Bristol City. His replacement Stephen Hunt is the man for a battle however and his contribution could be key after setting up both goals in the recent 2-1 comeback win against Bristol City.

"Wolves have never won in their six league meetings at the Reebok, but the games are normally pretty close affairs with never more than a goal in them. Bolton's recent surge would indicate another tough game but if Wolves show the same spirit as they did at Millwall and against Bristol City then they can give Dougie Freedman's side a run for their money. I'll go for a 1-1 draw."

THE MANAGER DEAN SAUNDERS

Born: Swansea, Wales

Date of Birth: 21/06/1964

Former Wrexham manager Dean Saunders took over the reins at Molineux earlier this year after the departure of Stale Solbakken.

Saunders, a former Welsh international who won over 70 caps, started his playing career with his hometown side Swansea City in 1982 and went on to play for Derby County, Liverpool and Aston Villa.

The 48-year-old turned his hand to management in 2008 with Wrexham, and he managed to lead the club to a top-four finish. Saunders took charge of Championship outfit Doncaster Rovers in September 2011, before eventually joining Wolves in January 2013.

The former England international won the League Cup on two occasions with Wolves and was also part of the side that finished as runners up in the 1971/72 UEFA Cup. Although his scoring record was surpassed by Steve Bull, Richards will remain as one of the club's greatest ever servants.

A 90th-minute strike from Mark Davies earned Bolton a point on the road at Molineux in an even encounter in the Midlands.

The Trotters took the lead in the 20th minute through Benik Afobe, but two goals in the space of three minutes from Kevin Doyle put the hosts in front on the half-hour mark.

With Wolves looking likely to take the points, former Wolves academy graduate Davies rifled in a volley from 12-yards out in the dying moments to give Bolton a share of the spoils in a thrilling encounter.

W

THE GROUNDS

WEMBLEY STADIUM

Wanderers have walked out at the home of the English football 13 times in their history, proudly winning the FA Cup four times as well as a Division One play-off triumph in 1995. Bolton have only visited the new Wembley stadium once which resulted in an FA Cup semi-final defeat against Stoke City in 2011.

WHITE HART LANE

Bolton last visited the home of Tottenham just over 12 months ago in the FA Cup, losing 3-1 with Kevin Davies on the scoresheet for the Whites. Their last win at Spurs came in the top flight in 2004 courtesy of goals from Radhi Jaidi and Henrik Pedersen either side of Robbie Keane's leveller.

WASSERSTADION

Although Bolton have never played at the home of German side Werder Bremen, former striker Ivan Klasnic played there for seven years between 2001 and 2008. He scored 50 goals in 150 appearances before moving to Nantes. Klasnic later went on loan at the Reebok in 2009 before making his switch permanent the following year.

W IS ALSO FOR...

WANDERERS

The name 'Bolton Wanderers' emerged after the original Bolton club, Christ Church F.C, held their last committee meeting at Christ Church Boys School. The committee then 'wandered' to the nearby Gladstone Hotel where the name 'Bolton Wanderers' was agreed on.

WOLVERHAMPTON WANDERERS

Bolton will host Wolves on Saturday, marking the 132nd meeting between the two sides. Tied at 53 wins each in all competitions, Wanderers will be aiming to maintain their unbeaten record at home against the Midlands outfit which stretches back to January 1999.

THE PLAYERS

MARK WINSTANLEY

The centre-half came through the youth ranks at Wanderers and made his league debut against Bournemouth in 1986. Playing his part in the Trotters promotion to the third tier in 1988, Winstanley will be fondly remembered for his goal which secured a famous 2-0 FA Cup win over Liverpool in 1993.

NEIL WHATMORE

Whatmore was a product of Wanderers' budding youth system and he broke into the first team in 1973. In his first game, Whatmore netted twice against Swansea City as the club went on to be crowned Third Division champions.

FRANK WORTHINGTON

The Halifax-born centre-forward spent only two years at Burnden Park and became a cult-hero with the Bolton faithful. Initially signed on loan, the frontman scored on his home debut against Stoke City before permanently for a record fee of £90,000. Worthington's heroics didn't end there and his goal secured the 1978 Second Division title against Blackburn Rovers.

WORLD CUP

Throughout the club's history, 14 players have played at World Cup finals whilst playing for the Trotters. Nat Lofthouse became the first to do so in 1954 and Stuart Holden was the most recent, appearing for the United States in 2010. Others to do so include Mark Fish in 1998, Youri Djorkaeff in 2002 and Hidetoshi Nakata in 2006.

WALES

Wanderers have had a host of players to have represented Wales at international level since David Davies' first cap in 1904. In total, 14 other Welshman have played for Wanderers whilst at the club, including frontman Nathan Blake, midfielder Gary Speed and current Wanderers Sam Ricketts and Craig Davies

WANDERERS STARS QUIZZED BY LOCAL PUPILS

Wanderers' stars Craig Dawson and Chris Eagles visited Devonshire Road Primary School after training last week to be interviewed by Year Six pupils as part of the P.A.S.S project they are currently studying under the supervision of Bolton Wanderers Community Trust.

As part of the P.A.S.S project the Year Six children have been researching player profiles and team statistics from last season's victory over Blackburn Rovers at the Reebok Stadium before attending this season's 1-0 win over Rovers which they are due to follow up with their match report.

To help them with their match report, Craig and Chris were interviewed by the pupils about their pre and post-match preparation as well as tactics for the game and goal hero Chris didn't need asking twice to talk the class through his goal and his infamous celebration! All of the questions and answers were recorded for the children to put together for their in-school broadcast.

To find out more about the courses delivered by BWCT across Bolton, visit www.bwct.org.uk

WANDERERS STARS SURPRISE YEAR FOUR PUPILS

Year Four pupils at St Matthews C of E Primary School were given a shock on Tuesday afternoon when David Ngog and Tim Ream popped by to talk to them about the importance of a healthy diet.

The children have been working on a topic called 'Healthy Heroes' for the last month which focuses on the importance of exercise and healthy eating as well as looking at their sporting heroes.

Tim and David went along to the school to see what the pupils have learnt so far and also took part in a question and answer session about their own healthy lifestyles including their usual pre match food, favourite fruit and vegetables and also how much exercise they do a day.

The Year Four children were then given the opportunity to quiz the duo on all things Wanderers and Tim and David shared information on their toughest ever opponents, their footballing heroes and also their typical day-to-day training schedule.

FIRST TEAM SQUAD DELIVER EASTER CHEER

Members of the first team squad visited Royal Bolton Hospital and two local hospices' after training last week to distribute Easter eggs to patients and spend time with them and their families.

A group of six players, led by captain Kevin Davies, visited the E5 Children's Ward at Royal Bolton Hospital and met sick children who are currently staying in the hospital recovering from illness and operations.

Bolton Wanderers would like to thank Tesco Horwich Extra for kindly donating a selection of the Easter eggs that were distributed at Royal Bolton Hospital, Bolton Hospice and Derian House.

Joining Kevin were Chris Eagles, Jay Spearing, Marcos Alonso, Joe Riley and Josh Vela and the six first teamers walked around the E5 ward distributing eggs to children who won't be spending the Easter period at home. Zat Knight, Darren Pratley, Tim Ream and Jay Lynch spent time chatting with Day Therapy patients and the staff at Bolton Hospice before meeting those who are currently staying at the Hospice for respite care.

Meanwhile another group of six players, including Stuart Holden and Andy Lonergan, visited Derian House in Chorley to chat and play with children and young adults who are currently at the Children's Hospice receiving respite and palliative care.

David Wheeler, Craig Davies, Rob Lainton and David Ngog were also present at Derian House and after spending time with the children and their loved ones, they were shown around the impressive facilities by members of the care team.
